

Christian radio continuously provides uplifting and encouraging messages creating a positive influence to the community.

If we replace Christian stations with LPFM broadcasters disrupting this message, it would be a serious blow to the community especially for commuters!

K-LOVE is one Christian station that can be heard by most of So. California - something that I look forward to whenever I travel there on business.